MRS. CHARLES A. MARSHALL

Her Death at Washington Yesterday Afternoon at 4 O'clock.

One by one the beautiful characters of the olden days of Washington's glory are passing into their eternal rest.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the relic of the late lamented and venerable Charles A. Marshall ended her earthly career at the ripe age of 84 years.

Her last illness has been for three months, and she quietly sank away of general debility and the infirmities of old age.

Early in life she united with the Presbyterian Church, with which faith she has walked consistently and faithfully ever since.

Her maiden name was Paxton, and she came of that famous Virginia stock which early emigrated to Kentucky and through its various branches has become a factor in business, social and political worlds.

Her husband was Colonel of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry, passing through the Civil War with great and distinguishing honor to his valor and ability. He died in February, 1896.

Mrs. Marshall had eight children, all of whom are living—Thomas, a lawyer in Salt Lake City; Mrs. Maurice Waller of this city; Mrs. Lucy Bentley of Virginia; William, a Government Engineer in New York City, and Mrs. Sarah Wilkes, Miss Fannie, Paxton and Ben at home.

The hour for the funeral will not be fixed till the children are heard from but the funeral will occur from the old home near Washington with Rev. Mr. Spears officiating.

The burial will follow in the Marshall Burying-ground on the hill.

A Custom of the Ages

Is that on Easter Day the beautiful shall predominate, for it is the outward manifestation of an inward beauty testifying of a universal sentiment of gladness and good will.

In none of the departments of beautifying on this day is there such marked effort as in personal adornment.

Ordinarily, the effect sought to be produced is not the gaudy nor the elaborate, but correct or rather the esthetic in personal costuming.

In order to produce this triumph effectively one of the most necessary and even indispensable factors is the neat and dressy shoe.

Without this the otherwise most tastefully appareled man or well-gowned woman utterly fails of the effect sought, and disappointment, at the least, follows.

It affords us pleasure to be able to announce, at the approach of the Easter occasion, that there need be no apprehension concerning proper and elegant footcovering; it may be found in unlimited variety, at prices lower than ever known FOR CASH, at the Closing Assignee's Sale of

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to J. J. Wood & Son, Maysville, and get a sample bottle free. Regular size 75 cents. Get Green's Prize Almanac.
